

All Saint's Day
October 31, 2021

All Saints Day originated in the 4th Century and was originally celebrated on the first Sunday after Pentecost. During the 800's the date was moved to November 1st, on "All Hallows' Day" or on the Eve of All Hallows, Oct. 31, or "Hallowe'en". The original observance included a visit to the parish graveyard, which served as a reminder that ALL the faithful, even those considered to be "ordinary" or "less remarkable by the world's standards"- that ALL face the story of a life that leads to physical death AND a promised resurrection in Christ. This is a day to celebrate ALL the saints – those of yesterday and today.

Pastor: Eternal God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, we praise you for the saints of all times and places who have walked the road of faith before us and beside us.

All: For their witness to your love and their commitment to your justice, for their trust in your mercy regardless of the circumstance, we give you thanks and praise.

Pastor: God of all creation, we praise you for all your servants who have witnessed to your truth, who have shown us your love, who have inspired us to have hope.

All: By their example of faith, hope, and love, remind us of your calling to join them in making your new creation real in this world and the next.

Pastor: God of grace and peace, we praise you for women and men and children who are a reflection of your love in our world.

All: Guide us to continue their faithful work as we too walk in the light of your love.

Pastor: God of all the saints, today we especially remember the saints from among this faith community, who have departed our company over the past year. We thank you for their faithful witness, for their courage amidst strife and their hope in the face of death. We remember so many other saints who have walked this road called life with us.

All: Continue to inspire us by their faithful witness, that we too might join in bringing your justice, mercy, and peace to our world.

Pastor: Eternal God, as we walk this pilgrim way,

All: make our faith firm, our hope clear, and our love pure, that we might join the saints of all the ages in praise eternal, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION <sup>6</sup>

Pastor: Our lives are full of mistakes and errors. We are not alone in this – all of those who have come before us were also plagued with temptation and sin. Let us come before God, just as generations of believers have done, and pray for God’s forgiveness and grace.

All: Eternal God, who has been our help in ages past, who was known to our spiritual forebears, have mercy on us. We do not always love as you would have us love. We do not always do as you would have us do. In our stubbornness, we turn from you when we should turn toward you. Hold us, dear Lord and comfort us when we mourn the passing of friends and family and help us to know that they are rejoicing in your presence. We praise you for the grace you shower on us, constantly forgiving the error of our ways, especially the ones that we don’t share with any but you. Hear now the silent fears and worries of our hearts.

MOMENT OF SILENCE FOR PERSONAL CONFESSION*ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS and PASSING THE PEACE OF CHRIST

Pastor: Family of God, hear the good news! Though thousands upon thousands of our ancestors did not follow God’s ways perfectly, we have hope in the one who did! Jesus, by the example of his life, his teachings, and death on the cross, he revealed that God has already forgiven us. Thus, we and all who have come before us - are rightly known as saints – the holy ones of God!

All: Thanks be to God for God’s mercy, grace, and love! Amen.

Pastor: Let us celebrate the goodness of God by greeting each other, from our seats of worship, with a sign of God's peace, using a genuine smile and the two-finger peace sign or a friendly wave or nod, along with the words, "The peace of Christ with you."

All: And also, with you.

OFFERING INVITATION (Based on Isaiah 25:6-9 and Revelation 21:1-a)

Liturgist: Our mission is to engage in God's mission to feed the hungry, give something to drink to the thirsty and to wipe the tears from every eye. One of the ways this is accomplished, is through the offering of our time, talent, and financial resources. Let us each give generously so that God's will might be done on earth as it is in heaven, and may we dedicate it all with a prayer...

PRAYER OF DEDICATION

All: Loving God, we present to you, our gifts. We pray that you might bless them and use us for your glory, as we praise you with our voices and with our lives. Amen.

BENEDICTION

Pastor: Brothers and sisters,
since we are surrounded by such a huge crowd of witnesses,
each of whom lived a life of faith in God,
let us lay aside every weight that slows us down,
especially the sin that so easily hinders our progress.
and let us run with endurance the race that God has set before us,
keeping our eyes on Jesus Christ,
on whom our faith depends, from start to finish.

And may the peace of God,
the love of Jesus Christ,
and the presence of the Holy Spirit,
be among us and within us as we go.

All: Amen.
