PRELUDE

In Celebration (Thompson)

GREETING & ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Prayer requests may be typed into the Facebook comment box at the start of worship, or emailed to the church office by Saturday morning. During the weekly prayer time, you will be given space to speak aloud or silently in your heart – your prayer concerns as well. As a gentle reminder, remember that these prayer concerns will be heard by anyone who watches the recorded worship service. Therefore, please be mindful of people’s privacy when using last names and in offering details of their circumstances. A good practice is to ask: What is NEEDED to be known for people to pray appropriately for someone and what does not NEED to be known and what would the person whom I name wish for me to share and NOT share?
- Pentecost is Sunday, May 23rd. This will be our HOMECOMING SUNDAY – a day of CELEBRATION. On this day we will celebrate in thankfulness and welcome new members into the fellowship and life of this congregation. As is our tradition too, on Pentecost, one of the ways we celebrate the LIFE-GIVING SPIRIT is by offering an additional monetary donation towards the purchase of Red Geraniums, which are used to beautify the gardens around the church entrance – that serve to remind us to be thankful for the Spirit of God. Last year, Claire Moore’s Girl Scout troop graciously planted them and Brian Clemens, our custodian, maintained them. They were stunning! I hope you’ll consider a special CELEBRATION OFFERING on Pentecost.
- The summer worship schedule (9 AM start time) begins on June 6, 2021.

FIRST READING - 1 John 3:1-7 and 1 John 4:7-21

Our second reading, recorded in First John speaks to the love of God and what it means to be children of God. The author moves us to consider why does this type of encounter with God or this sacred relationship make a difference in how we see ourselves and others in the world? This is chapter 3, verses 1 through 7 AND chapter 4, verses 7 through 21. John writes:

See what great love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God! And that is what we are! The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. ² Dear friends, now we are children of God, and what we will be, has not yet been made known. But we know that when Christ appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. ³ All who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

⁴Everyone who sins breaks the law; in fact, sin is lawlessness. ⁵But you know that he appeared so that he might take away our sins. And in him is no sin. ⁶No one who lives in him keeps on sinning. No one who continues to sin has either seen him or known him.

⁷Dear children, do not let anyone lead you astray. The one who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.

⁷Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. ⁸Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love. ⁹This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. ¹⁰This is love: not that we loved God, but that God loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins. ¹¹Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. ¹²No one has ever seen God; but if we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us.

¹³This is how we know that we live in him and he in us: He has given us of his Spirit. ¹⁴And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. ¹⁵If anyone acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God lives in them and they in God. ¹⁶And so we know and rely on the love God has for us.

God is love. Whoever lives in love - lives in God, and God in them. ¹⁷This is how love is made complete among us so that we will have confidence on the day of judgment: In this world we are like Jesus. ¹⁸There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear, because fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears is not made perfect in love.

¹⁹We love because God first loved us. ²⁰Whoever claims to love God yet hates a brother or sister is a liar. For whoever does not love their brother and sister, whom they have seen, cannot love God, whom they have not seen. ²¹And God has given us this command: Anyone who loves God must also love their brother and sister.

This the Word of the Lord. Let all the people say, "Thanks be to God."

GOSPEL READING – John 15:1-8

Vineyard and vine imagery are frequently used throughout the Bible. In the Old Testament, however, this is typically a negative image. For example: Israel (or the people of God) are described as a vine or vineyard and God as a judgmental vine-dresser – hacking off those branches that are degenerate and unrighteous. In the first century, vineyards would've been very familiar to Jesus' disciples too, passing them as they walked from place to place. In this passage, the job of pruning is referenced. While pruning may seem cruel, it actually renews the vine's vitality. In this passage, Jesus tells a story using the metaphor of vines and gardeners, to describe the relationship between his followers and God, which move us to ask: Where is our church here? Is it a fruit bearing branch of Christ or is it an unfruitful branch which withers and dies? No longer useful, the branch is eventually removed and tossed into the fire. This is the 15th chapter of John, verses 1 through 8. Jesus said:

¹"I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener. ²God cuts off every branch - in me - that bears no fruit, while every branch that does bear fruit, God prunes so that it will be even more fruitful.

³You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. ⁴Remain in me, as I also remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me.

⁵"I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing.

⁶If you do not remain in me, you are like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire and burned. ⁷If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. ⁸This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples.

This is the Good News of Christ, let all the people say, "Praise be to Christ."

OFFERING INVITATION¹

PRAYER OF DEDICATION & THE LORD'S PRAYER

All: Generous God, we offer you the fruits of our time, talents, and financial resources in celebration of all that we have been given. We give you thanks and ask a special blessing on the fruits we give back to help meet the needs of your beloved community. May the gifts nourish and strengthen this church and the wider community to grow spiritually, emotionally, and physically. We pray in the name of Jesus Christ, who also taught us to pray: Our Father, who art in heaven; hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day, our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
