We gather this morning to share in the wonder and mystery of the resurrection of Jesus, an event that even his disciples could not believe at first.

If our faith has been our guide into life, then we too have witnessed those moments of dying and rising, when life was filled with suffering or with excitement and undying joy.

People:

We pray this morning that the Spirit of Resurrection would fill us even in times when we might find it hard to believe.

Leader:

Renew us with the power of your Word, that we might tell others the meaning of this third day.
