

Worship in the Sanctuary

- ONLY for those who have difficulty ambulating – for example – using a walker, cane, or wheelchair – the doors will open at 9:20 am.
- Doors to the sanctuary for worship will open at 9:30 am, for all other folks.
- Church Entrance is through the main REAR sanctuary door. If traversing stairs are difficult, please use the handicap ramp to enter the front sanctuary door. Ushers will provide you with your pew/seat information when you enter. Please note that seating may change week to week, depending on the number of worship attendees for any given Sunday.
- Church exit, post worship, is through the FRONT sanctuary door and down the ramp. Please take time to clean up your worship area prior to leaving by taking all papers, communion containers, and so forth, with you. A small wastebasket is located by the exit door for you to place the discarded items.
- Social distancing (socializing) is to be maintained while inside the building. While we are used to socializing and chatting before worship, it is important that we respect safe space and avoid transmission via talking loudly across 6 foot distances to one another. Socializing in this manner may also be distracting for those who may be praying and settling in prior to the start of worship. But, please, feel free to socialize before and after worship outside in the fresh air.
- The Offering Plate is located on a table by the exit door. Tithes and offerings may be placed there after the service.
- Regarding SINGING in worship. The current guidelines recommend humming or SOFT singing, only, under your mask. Please feel free to clap and sway too!
- Bathrooms are open for use. Please use the rear SANCTUARY door to exit and re-enter. The overflow area is closed at this time.
- If you make a reservation and are unable to keep it, please call the church office up until Saturday. In this way, if there is a wait list, other folks may be called and attend worship.
- If you are not feeling well or have traveled to a state on the quarantine list, please refrain from attending until you feel better and the quarantine time has passed.
