NE Food Pantry Volunteers Needed!

In order for the Northeastern Food Pantry to continue being a valuable service to the community they need more volunteers. Due to the COVID pandemic the Pantry is a no-contact pantry, meaning the clients do not enter the building. Volunteers pull the orders and deliver to the client's vehicle. Workers schedule the days they want to work be it weekly, monthly, on-call etc. There is some paper-work involved and training will be given to anyone who signs up. Prior volunteers are encouraged to come back to help out. Volunteers are scheduled to work in pairs but if you don't have someone to work with you we will gladly find you a partner. Please call Belle Craul at 717-870-4128 or Grace Gichner at 717-814-0570 if you would like to be part of this valuable team. Thanks in advance!

Saturday, October 10th—Veteran's Helping Hand Food Run

On Saturday, October 10th, We will participate in the food run with Mr. Sandy's Veteran's Helping Hands mission out of York. There are multiple ways for you to participate and bless this ministry with the giving of your time, talent, and treasure. For example, donating grocery store gift cards, preparing food, packaging food, serve on the clean up crew, load vehicles with the coolers, deliver meals on-site at the 3 set locations and pray. Contact Vicki Donbaugh to have specific questions answered.
